WELCOME TO MAMMOTH JAZZ

The Intro

The Soul provides us the language of music. Imagine connecting to spirit without limitation. Imagine that which is difficult is easy. Imagine those feelings you have lost to be found. Music is a stimulus to our sense of healing.

Music affects people regardless of cultural context. It brings us out of our heads and into our hearts. This is the Spirit of Mammoth Jazz.

Every form of music has evolved out of a new generation's experiences, which inspired other musical generations. The non-conformists became pioneers. Driven by life's syncopation and improvisation our predecessor's notes are recycled and this cycle of change lives here, in every Mammoth Jazz musician.

“Music is the soil
in which the spirit lives, thinks and invents.”

-Ludwig van Beethoven

Live performance Jazz is the last bastion of a cultural revolution that developed in America. In Mammoth we seek to recreate that pure musical experience as a culture's music. Mammoth is a place where players soar.

This year the non-conformists who started Mammoth Jazz are celebrating a tremendous milestone of achievement. Twenty five years of suiting up and showing up through thick and thin. Overcoming a lifetime of obstacles to achieve the unachievable. We want to thank them and the volunteers who assisted them for selflessly bringing us 25 years of uninterrupted Mammoth Jazz.

Welcome to Mammoth, the place where your Jazz dreams come true. -RT

It Takes A Town

When I was a kid, I listened to vinyl disks on a turntable. I still remember unwrapping an album to hear the crackle of the stylus hitting the vinyl and the pause before those invisible sound waves bounced through my eardrum to my brain. It was amazing.

Back then, you had to go somewhere to buy a record. You got in a car or rode your bike to the record shop. You took out your paper money and you couldn't wait to get home to play it. Back then, music was hard to get.

Today, record companies don't make vinyl albums yet every musical recording is available at the touch of a button, everywhere, anytime... That's music's evolution.

The evolution of Mammoth Jazz, the public story, where Ken & Flossie Coulter and Elliott & Thelma Thompson stumbled into this event by serendipity may not be far from the truth. I interviewed Ken, Flossie and Elliott before their 25th Anniversary Jubilee and found a few tidbits that you might like.

"The four of us just got back from a scorching hot Sacramento Jazz Festival" said Elliott, "Wouldn't those suffering people like to come to Mammoth and enjoy music in our cool backyard?" All of them sittin' around the dinner table, "Maybe we should give it a try"... 2 bands, one stage, 300 people and one exhausted credit line later they thought they might just do it again.

Year two's main stage was poorly built, it swayed and bounced making the players seasick. As the first band wobbled through their performance, Flossie wrangled a construction crew from a house being built in the Mammoth Knolls. With the lure of free beer, Garin Philbrook, Fergie and crew abandoned their job-site to crawl under the stage in the middle of the second performance. Using hammers and saws trying to keep time with the musicians, they shored up the rickety platforms with scrap lumber while the band played on.

Elliott Thompson designed the first Badge after the Temple of Folly marching band. They wanted "the ticket" to be exchangeable, one badge, one person, one seat... The badges on the cover of this magazine weren't easy to find, I had to raid everyone's collection to get the complete set.

Volunteers come from all walks of life and from across the country. "We got our first tent managers by walking around our neighborhood" said Flossie. "We recruited our friends, then we went to the fire dept and police dept. Those managers got their friends involved".

"Our volunteers are loyal and proud of our community". Working only for the music, a T-shirt, badge and a thank-you; Mammoth Jazz has a volunteer staff that can top 500. "They are the life blood of this event." said Ken. "Strong people that can think on their feet. That's one of the reasons all the tent venues have their own personality."

One experience that stood out for Flossie was that, at the end of the second season, which had 6 bands, two days and three venues, the musicians came to her and said that they wanted to hear each other perform. In order for that to happen she had to hire twice as many bands. That's

This is the group that musicians go to see on their time off when they are not performing elsewhere..

SUE PALMER'S MOTEL SWING ORCHESTRA

Best known for her beehive-wearing stint with blues diva Candye Kane in the '90's, Sue Palmer has been making her mark in the last decade with her high energy band, the Motel Swing Orchestra, and her flashy boogie woogie stylings. Anyone who has been to a show by Sue Palmer and her Motel Swing Orchestra will let you know that this ensemble is a rambunctious crew, prone to spontaneous outbursts and high-energy performances. And though all the veteran musicians of the Orchestra have been with the ensemble for years, the enthusiasm and sense of fun that have distinguished this band since its inception still shine.

TITAN HOT 7

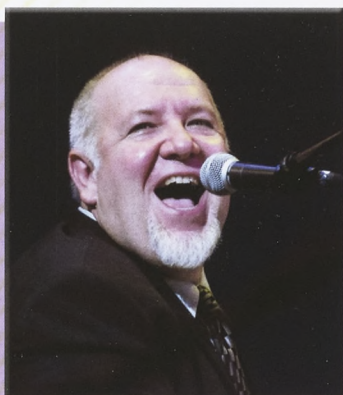

This powerhouse ensemble remains one of the hottest jazz bands currently on land or sea! This band of merry men features traditional jazz, swing, ballads, ragtime, novelty tunes and spontaneous, outrageous humor in every one of their sets. The Titans tailor their music and mirth to each audience, guaranteeing that each show is full of surprises for everyone, including the performers! The regular trombone player, Jim Fryer, is unable to attend Mammoth Jazz, so look for a variety of replacements throughout the Jubilee.

TOM HOOK ALONE & WITH THE TERRIER BROS.

Did your Boogie lose its Woogie? You never know what to expect from this raucous bunch of musicians, or even from Tom all by himself. Jump, Swing, Dixie, New Orleans, Cajun and any other form of vintage popular music will be performed for you. You will see a variety of combinations from these 5 talented musicians - enjoy!

TOM RIGNEY & FLAMBEAU

Described by one Mammoth local as a Clint Eastwood look-alike playing fiddle while wearing his "flowing" robe. Rigney has been a part of the San Francisco music scene for over twenty-five years. The son of baseball great Bill Rigney, Tom is an "electrifying" performer. He commands the stage with depth and originality with his bluesy, funky New Orleans grooves. He will get you off your seat and on to the dance floor. Tom and Flambeau just plain put on a great show.

WE 3

This threesome can be heard/seen only a few times a year. Originally created in Mammoth many years ago, they became an instant success story. Now they are heard/seen only when Bob Draga plays where the Titan Hot 7 also performs.

It Takes A Town

when it became a full-time, 12 month a year job. All this was done without a single computer, cell phone or credit card machine.

Ken reminisced that one of the best things we ever did was when we stopped assembling the tents ourselves. It took ten of our guys four hours to erect one tent. When the professional crew came the next year, they did 4 tents in 4 hours with half the people.

The kids Jazz Camp workshops started the 3rd year. Bill Dendle and Ken built the first Jazz Camp. They created the curriculum and hired The Professors to come to Mammoth Jazz a week early. "It's our pride and Joy" said Ken, The 8 - Professors come from all over the country. After a week of world class tutoring, the kids play on the big stages Friday and Saturday during Mammoth Jazz.

Tie dye is quite unconventional for a Jazz festival. Long time local manager Dennis Hampton, came to Mammoth Jazz through the back door doing community service work and eventually became the operations manager. He wanted the managers to stand out. They became the tie-dye-volunteers. You see the tie dye theme throughout the magazine this year.

What about the future? "We would like to see Jazz played as a Festival in Mammoth and have patrons continue to enjoy it. We're Jazz people, but we're troubled when 11 festivals have folded in the last 2 years, including LA and Orange county." said Ken. Mammoth Jazz is a Legacy event. When Mammoth Jazz started there were only a few other large summer activities; Fourth of July, The Kamikaze and bike races, Sierra Summer Festival and Motocross. Now there are dozens of posters papering local business windows advertising summer events.

"Every year has been a different challenge" stated Flossie. "Land sold, buildings were demolished, venues changed, walking became bussing."

"It's our hope that the kid's Jazz Camp continues to grow but the core performances may change. We are going to continue to book the talent, but as we step back as co-directors and the board of directors steps in, Mammoth Jazz will evolve even more. We will remain on as consultants."

RULES, FOOD & FIRST AID

Rules

No Smoking - High fire danger exists in the tent environment next to the trees. Designated areas are signed with butt buckets. It's the law: No smoking inside the venues, bars or restaurants.

No Seat Saving - Before an event is officially open. This one is a no brainer. If you leave your cushion on a seat and leave the venue, you will lose it. Same rules apply during the event. Managers will fill empty seats once the music starts.

Lost and Found - Badge sales booth at the Holler and Big Top are the collection points for all lost and found. Lost badges are sent here also; please put your name and phone number on the back of your badge to increase the chances of getting it back. Lost badges will not be replaced.

Electronic Recording Devices - Video cameras are allowed only at the discretion of the band leaders. Small hand-held audio recorders are permitted.

Alcoholic Beverages - No coolers, thermoses or outside alcohol in the venues. Remember Altitude and Alcohol don't mix. Drink lots of water.

Handicapped Restrooms - Grumpy's, Big Top, RV Park, Little Eagle and The Holler.

All venues have restroom facilities.

Dancing - Is encouraged on the dance floors. They are provided at most venues; some special children's dance floors are provided also. Just remember, no dancing in front of the stages, the dust affects the musicians and they have to breathe.

First Aid

Contact site managers and volunteers at every venue. They are the ones in the staff event shirts. They have radios and phones, or you can call 911.

Food Venues

The Holler - A variety of handmade pitas from the Pita Pit. Thai rice bowls, chicken and beef sticks. Hand-made sausages, peppers and onions, benya's, Caesar Salad, Jambalaya, vitamin water, Odwallas, smoothies, iced mochas, coffee, sodas, water, full bar.
